

Shelter for Animals

Small and large animals need shelter as they search for food. The area near Bench One has rocks near and under which small creatures can find refuge. The trees are places where animals can observe the area for enemies that might lurk nearby. The trees can also shelter them from rain, snow or heat.