

The Taylor County Historical Society opened the log cabin as part of their museum at the fairground. Move 4 spaces as you learn about homes in early Taylor County.

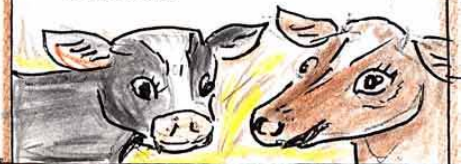

1890

You listen to a speaker who tells how important dairying will be after the logging is over here in our county. Move 3 spaces as you think about those changes.

1902

At the cattle barn you see different breeds of dairy cows. Move five spaces as you think about whether Holstein or Guernsey cows would be better for your farm.

1892

The horses at the fair make you think about the ones Eph. Williams trains. He is an African-American who owns a big circus and lives in Medford. You are proud that he is from your town. Go ahead seven.

1891

The Skerbeck family from Dorchester trains dogs and ponies. All the children in their big family are in their show from the time they are 6 years old. Move 6 spaces as you practice at home with your dog to have an act like theirs.

1908 A stone picker was a big attraction at the fair this year. You have lots of stones on your fields. Move 4 spaces while you learn about the machine.
